

Amateur Astronomers

THIS MONTH'S PROGRAMS AND CONVENTIONS

Chicago, Ill.: Chicago Astronomical Society, 7:45 p.m., Adler Planetarium. May 11, John Sternig, Glencoe Public Schools, "Current Events in Space."

Decatur, Ga.: Southeast Region, Astronomical League. Bradley Observatory, Agnes Scott College, May 4-5.

Edmonton, Alberta: Royal Astronomical Society of Canada. University of Alberta, May 18-20.

Minneapolis, Minn.: North Central Region, Astronomical League. Augsburg College and Theological Seminary, May 5-6.

New York, N. Y.: Amateur Astronomers Association, 8 p.m., American Museum of Natural History. May 16, motion pic-are welcome to send exhibits. Further information may be secured from Dr. Ian G. McLennan, Queen Elizabeth Planetarium, Edmonton, Alta., Canada.

NEW ENGLAND MEETING

A second annual assembly of New England amateurs is being sponsored by the South Shore Astronomical Society at the Norwell Grange in Norwell, Massachusetts, on Saturday, June 9th. Registration begins at 9:30 a.m.

Telescopes will be judged in the afternoon, and after a turkey dinner a star party will conclude the program. Further information may be secured from Miss Frances S. Winn, 74 Lincoln Ave., Wollaston 70, Mass.
